

Dom Dwyer

Dom spent many years at Norwich City Football academy before teaming up with the advanced program and since leaving the Kings Lynn Advanced Football Program Dom has had a great football career. Dom has played semi-professional football with both King's Lynn & Staines Town Football Club.

Dom spent 3 years with the College of West Anglia Football Academy where he continued to excel with his football. During this spell Dom completed his FA Level 1 in coaching Football and came back to KLCF to work part time around college and football.

The summer of 2009 Dom left the UK to follow a dream of playing professional football in America via a scholarship with a sports college. After 2 years at Tyler Junior College Dom had helped them to win two national titles and break all time scoring records. In his second season scoring 35 goals and being named 'Nationals Player of the Year'

These two successful seasons led to a move to one of the top Universities in the United States on a full scholarship, the University of South Florida. Dom helped USF reach the last 8 of the national finals after qualifying from the big east league. Dom has already broken the Universities season scoring record, twice being named as the countries division 1 player of the week.

Dom's ambition after completing his studies and football with South Florida is to complete his degree and step into the professional football scene in America.
